Section 1: Goals, Objectives and Activities - Screen 3

1.2 Objectives

1.2B Describe the steps planned regarding outreach to populations in the State that are unserved or underserved by programs under title VII, including minority groups and urban and rural populations.

- Identify the populations to be designated for targeted outreach efforts

As indicated in goals and objectives (1.1/1.2) outreach will focus on three populations plus general outreach:

(a) nursing home residents with significant disabilities who are interested in transitioning to community living; (b) non-English speaking Hispanics with significant disabilities since they are the largest growing minority population and have the added barrier of communication. c.) outreach to Native Americans (Tribal Entities and Communities) with significant disabilities and their families. d.) general outreach will include continuing funding of the successful bus billboard campaign which has been estimated to reach 250000 people statewide.

- Identify the geographic areas (i.e., communities) in which the targeted populations reside

Nursing home outreach will be statewide as will be the general outreach. Non-English speaking Hispanic outreach will be focused on Providence County and the cities of Providence and Pawtucket/Central Falls where the largest percentage live. Native American outreach will be statewide with a focus on the Washington County Area.

- Describe how the needs of individuals with significant disabilities from minority group backgrounds will be addressed

The CILs will collaborate with community agencies serving non-English speaking Hispanics, such as Dorcas Place, Genesis Center, etc. The CIL's will also outreach to the Native American Elders to schedule presentations at the Narragansett Indian Health Center, Rhode Island Indian Council, Longhouse, and Four Winds Community Center.

1.3B Financial Plan Narratives

1.3B(1) Specify how the part B, part C and chapter 2 (Older Blind) funds, if applicable, will further the SPIL objectives.

n/a

1.3B(2) Describe efforts to coordinate Federal and State funding for centers and IL services, including the amounts, sources and purposes of the funding to be coordinated.

Coordination of Federal and State funding for Centers (Part C) and IL services (Part B SILS) occur through the partnership and communication between the ORS which administers Part B funds (and contracts with the CILs for these services) and the two CILs. (See Table 1.3A for amounts).

The State Plan for Independent Living is followed in allocating resources for the Goals and Objectives (See Table 2.1 and 1.3 B1). Coordination also occurs through reviews of the 704 Part II reports by the ORS and the RISILC. In addition, the ORS contracts with the CILs for State funded services and coordinates these with the Federal funding sources. Part B and C, including ARRA funded services are home modification, outreach to under-served populations, nursing home transition and deferment activities.

Part B funding for these activities= $344,500

ARRA B $268,506 is dispersed to both CILs in year one of the plan and reflected in year one of table 1.3A. ARRA C dollars totaling $350,358 are reflected in all 3 yrs of table 1.3A as $116,785 annually

1.3B(3) Describe any in-kind resources including plant, equipment or services to be provided in support of the SILC resource plan, IL services, general CIL operations and/or other SPIL objectives.

Volunteers are the basic in-kind resource in support of the RISILC resource plan, IL services, general CIL operations and/or other SPIL objectives. The CILs have minor program income and fund raising income. The CILs apply for focus and time limited grant funds wherever feasible. Other Federal funding cannot be counted as in-kind.

1.3B(4) Provide any additional information about the financial plan, as appropriate.

Figures noted include known ARRA B (90% Federal/10% State) in year one (1) only.

Figures noted include known ARRA C allocation to CILs directly- evenly divided spread over the 3 years of the plan 11-13.

1.4 Compatibility with Chapter 1 of Title VII and the CIL Work Plans

1.4A Describe how the SPIL objectives are consistent with and further the purpose of chapter 1 of title VII of the Act as stated in section 701 of the Act and 34 CFR 364.2.

The goals and objectives are consistent with and further the purposes of providing, expanding and improving the provision of IL services in order to improve the lives of individuals with significant disabilities. The goals further the support of the CILs and encourage improvement in working relations among the CILs, the ORS, the RISILC and programs that address the needs of individuals with significant disabilities.

The goals and objectives promote the philosophy of Independent Living based on consumer control, peer support, self help, self determination, equal access, and advocacy to maximize the leadership, independence and productivity of individuals with significant disabilities. They promote and maximize the integration and full inclusion of individuals with significant disabilities into the mainstream of American society.

1.4B Describe how, in developing the SPIL objectives, the DSU and the SILC considered and incorporated, where appropriate, the priorities and objectives established by centers for independent living under section 725(c)(4) of the Act.

Input from the CILs has been an integral part of the development of the goals and objectives and assists them in meeting the standards and assurances and ensuring implementation of the design of a network of centers in Rhode Island.

The ORS and the RISILC considered and incorporated the priorities and objectives established by the two CILs. All

Council Members receive copies of the CILs' 704 Part II Report for their review. These reports are discussed at the spring quarterly Council meeting with particular attention given to the results of the consumer satisfaction surveys, CILs work plans, progress made toward goals and objectives, and challenges faced. In addition, the CILs report on the progress of SPIL goals and objectives at quarterly Council meetings. Both CILs' Executive Directors are members of the Council's State Plan Committee.

1.5 Cooperation, Coordination, and Working Relationships Among Various Entities

Describe the steps that will be taken to maximize the cooperation, coordination and working relationships among the SILS program, the SILC, and centers; the DSU, other State agencies represented on the SILC and other councils that address the needs of specific disability populations and issues; and other public and private entities determined to be appropriate by the SILC.

The description must identify the entities with which the DSU and the SILC will cooperate and coordinate.

The evaluation plan is designed to improved cooperation and coordination through interactive communication. In addition, the RISILC members serve on and report back on the work of other Councils, including the Statewide Rehabilitation Council, the Governor's Council on the Blind, the Developmental Disabilities Council, the Commission for the Deaf and Hard of Hearing, the Sherlock Center, and Save our Services for Mental Health. The annual report of the Chapter Two Older Blind program is provided to all RISILC members. A representative from the Client Assistance Program is a member of RISILC. The CILs serve on the Global Medicaid Waiver Task Force.

1.6 Coordination of Services

Describe how IL services funded under chapter 1 of title VII of the Act will be coordinated with and complement other services to avoid unnecessary duplication with other Federal, State, and local programs, including the OIB program authorized by chapter 2 of title VII of the Act, that provide IL- or VR-related services.

The ORS, thre CILs, and the RISILC review the plans of other state agencies providing services to individuals with significant disabilities, and given limited IL resources, seek to provide unique IL services and provide individual and system advocacy. The ORS also coordinates and provides Older Blind Independent Living (OIB) services and avoids duplication by having OIB and the CIL's staffs meet periodically concerning cross referral and utilization of funds.

Consultation by the OIB program regarding best practices is occurring with the CILs, especially regarding the survey used by the OIB program. This survey obtains a higher response rate, measures outcomes related to Independent Living and is analyzed by an objective third party program evaluator. This process will be the foundation for the survey indicated in Part II Section 1.2A of this SPIL. Two way consultation will also occur regarding the most cost effective strategies and policies related to providing IL services.

Coordination with multiple Social Security programs occurs on a case by case basis and through the CILs participating on advisory committees. Frequent contact and coordination occurs in using Medicaid and Medicare services for access to assistive technology, health care and transportation. Department of Human Services administers Title XVIII Medicaid, including Medicaid waivers which are fully utilized in assisting individuals with significant disabilities to become more independent through access to personal care assistance, assistive technology and some other services. Department of Human Services also administers Title XX and the CILs assist in accessing the services, such as transportation, provided through the agencies funded by Title XX. ORS has a Social Security Work Incentive Assistance (WIPA) agreement, which provides information to all Social Security recipients, including those served by the CILs. The ORS also has an Assistive Technology Partnership (A TAP) grant through which the CILs receive some funding and participate as partners. The ORS is the link in assuring lack of duplication in these services.

Plans to coordinate more closely with the Department of Health are described in the goals and objectives. The CILs have participated in that Department's wellness activities for individuals who are significantly disabled. The CILs are active in housing coordination including through a coordinated program called Housing Works. Rhode Island passed a bond issue for low income housing through this coordinated effort. The CILs have staff specializing in access to subsidized housing. The CILs serve on several transportation coordination committees in the state. Coordination with Special Education, Vocational Education, and Developmental Disabilities occurs through the CILs' individual assistance in accessing such services and through a working relationship with Rhode Island Parents' Information Center, which provides classes and information for parents, and through the Information and Referral programs of the Department of Human Services. Veteran's services are coordinated through contacts with the Regional Federal Veterans' Office. Mental health services can be coordinated through contacts with the State Mental Health advocate's office.

The CILs recognize that with limited staff resources, ongoing coordination with other appropriate agencies which provide up-to-date information and services is essential. The CILs have skilled and experienced Information and Referral (I & R) staff who interact with increasingly centralized information and referral services in the state (such as the 211 service). This enables I & R staff to provide accurate information to individuals with disabilities, the general public and their own staff, in order to access services. The CILs apply for grants to increase their capacity to provide I & R services and provide this information to their own staff.

1.7 Independent Living Services for Individuals who are Older Blind

Describe how the DSU seeks to incorporate into, and describe in, the State plan any new methods or approaches for the provision of IL services to older individuals who are blind that are developed under the Older Individuals who are Blind program and that the DSU determines to be effective.

The ORS has identified that the OIB consumer survey has a high response rate. Their methodology and survey will be considered in developing the new survey included in the Goals and Objectives (1.2).

2.1B Describe any service provision priorities, including types of services or populations, established for meeting the SPIL objectives identified in section 1.2.

The service provision priorities are as follows:

1. Increase access to the least restrictive environments, based on informed consumer choice. The CILs will assist consumers in transitioning from restrictive locations, such as nursing homes, into the least restrictive community based living. The CILs will also provide, if eligible and funding is available, home modifications and equipment purchases for consumers to achieve this.
2. Increase access to health care, including outreach to non-English speaking Hispanics and Native Americans. Increase access includes access to assistive technology, skills training and information and referrals. This also requires communication access, access to transportation to utilize services, other support services and the CILs individual and system advocacy.

Due to limitations in funding:

- A. Part B funding will be used only when other funding is not available.
- B. Computers will not be provided except through donation programs.

- C. Economic need will be considered.
- D. No prosthetics will be allowed.
- E. Only non-structural vehicle modification will be allowed.

2.1C If the State allows service providers to charge consumers for the cost of services or to consider the ability of individual consumers to pay for the cost of IL services, specify the types of IL services for which costs may be charged and for which a financial need test may be applied, and describe how the State will ensure that:

- Any consideration of financial need is applied uniformly so that all individuals who are eligible for IL services are treated equally; and
- Written policies and consumer documentation required by 34 CFR 364.59(d) will be kept by the service provider.

Indicate N/A if not applicable.

The ability of individual consumers to pay is uniformly considered for the cost of home modifications, adaptive equipment and Gift of Hearing program. There are standard reporting forms for this information and such information is filed in the individual's case record. The CILs have developed their own policy consistent with the ORS's policy for determining economic need.

2.2 Arrangements for State-Provided Services

2.2A If the DSU will provide any of the IL services identified in section 2.1A through grants or contractual arrangements with third parties, describe such arrangements.

The ORS contracts with the two CILs for Part B SILS services. IL service contracts with the CILs include the provision of eligibility being determined by the CILs, with a sample of case records reviewed by the ORS. The ORS receives and reviews quarterly statistical, narrative, and financial reports.

2.2B If the State contracts with or awards a grant to a center for the general operation of the center, describe how the State will ensure that the determination of an individual's eligibility for services from that center shall be delegated to the center.

Section 3: Design for the Statewide Network of Centers

3.1 Existing Network

Provide an overview of the existing network of centers, including non-Part C-funded centers that comply with the standards and assurances in section 725 (b) and (c) of the Act, and the geographic areas and populations currently served by the centers.

Rhode Island has a network of two CILs serving statewide. The two CILs meet the federal standards, including cross-disability, consumer-majority boards and a qualified staff, consisting of a majority with disabilities. Staff are qualified and committed, and are valued for their skills and need to be paid fairly. Both CILs are located in heavily populated state counties of Kent and Providence, in which 80% of the total population reside according to the 2000 census. Rhode Island is a small state comprised of a total of five counties, both CILs serving all counties.

Due to the state's small size and unique geography, both Centers are able to offer services on a statewide basis, which permits full consumer choice. Rhode Island may be unique in providing the majority of direct services in the homes of consumers rather than in the Centers. Both Centers provide the following mandated core services in addition to Nursing Home Transition:

1. Information and referral
2. Advocacy (System and Individual)
3. Independent Living Skills Training
4. Peer Counseling

Both CILs receive direct Federal Title VII, Chapter 1, Part C funding for Centers for Independent Living. Federal Title VII, Chapter 1, Part B funds are provided to both CILs through contract with the Office of Rehabilitation Services. In addition, both CILs are receiving American Recovery and Reinvestment Act (ARRA) funding for Centers for Independent Living and Title VII: Part B funding through contract with Office of Rehabilitation Services. Both CILs are able to provide home modifications through Medicaid Global Waiver funding through contract with the Office of Rehabilitation Services.

OSCIL receives Department of Elderly Affairs funding, funding through the Assistive Technology Access Partnership (ATAP) and grant funding through Tuft's Health Care Foundation.

PARI receives funding through Medicaid to provide services to individuals with Traumatic Brain Injuries and a program to provide Case Management to people with a hospital level of care through the Habilitative Waiver. PARI also receives State funds for a State PCA Program, RI Legislative grant money, funding through the Assistive Technology Access Partnership (ATAP) and a variety of smaller grants that support the PARI Equipment Recycling Program.

PARI Independent Living Center is located in the city of Pawtucket in Providence County and provides, in addition to the core services, programs for Personal Care Assistance, home modification and adaptive equipment, Nursing Home Transition, and equipment reuse.

Ocean State Center for Independent Living (OSCIL) is located in the city of Warwick, Kent County and provides, in addition to the core services, housing services, home access coordination, including a home modification and adaptive equipment program (including smoke detectors for the Deaf), Nursing Home Transition, citizenship training, and driver education.

Data collected from the two Centers indicate all cities and towns throughout the state are being served with 83% of the individuals receiving direct service residing in two of the five counties (Providence and Kent), which have 80% of the state's disabled population. The bulk of the state's subsidized accessible housing is located in these areas, as is most of the public transit service.

3.2 Expansion of Network

Describe the design for the further expansion of the network, including identification of the unserved and underserved areas in the State and the order of priority for serving these areas as additional funding becomes available (beyond the required cost-of-living increase).

Further expansion of the network (beyond the cost of living increase) includes the following priorities:

Increase services to Rhode Islanders with significant disabilities to transition from nursing homes and other restrictive living arrangements, back into a community setting.

Increase services to people with significant disabilities, including consumers who are non-English speaking and the Native American population.

Increase access to health care, assistive technology and transportation.

Continue advocacy efforts to inform legislators and decision makers of the impact of pending legislation on the lives of people with disabilities; always with emphasis and promotion of the IL philosophy.

Increased funding is crucial for both CILs for general operation, for recruitment and retention of quality staff to address the 10% increase in service provision, for the provision of IL services and new federal reporting requirements. In addition, the CILs have realized cost increases associated with basic operations, such as staff health care insurance, energy, and telephone.

Both CILs respond to a significant number of information and referral requests, including monitoring those requests made in the areas of healthcare, assistive technology and transportation. There is a need for expanded Information and Referral (I & R) services including an infrastructure that can effectively document this increase in service.

It is estimated that CILs need an additional $870,000 per year to expand in order to address the unmet needs and maintain qualified staff, $435,000 for each CIL to increase service provisions, with additional funding to establish space within a Native American community agency (i.e., The RI Indian Council) located in Washington County, to conduct outreach efforts and provide ease of access for Native Americans with disabilities; as well as provide for space within an Hispanic community agency. The priority for any additional Federal funding, if available, is for general operation of existing CILs and the establishment of these outreach locations.

3.3 Section 723 States Only

3.3A If the State follows an order of priorities for allocating funds among centers within a State that is different from what is outlined in 34 CFR 366.22, describe the alternate order of priority that the DSU director and the SILC chair have agreed upon. Indicate N/A if not applicable.

3.3B Describe how the State policies, practices and procedures governing the awarding of grants to centers and the oversight of these centers are consistent with 34 CFR 366.37 and 366.38.

The Rhode Island State Independent Living Council's (RISILC)

Finance Committee prepared a draft budget. Its recommendation was sent to the Executive Committee where it was reviewed and discussed. The RISILC Chairperson and other RISILC officers meet with the DSU, Office of Rehabilitation Services (ORS), to review in detail the draft budget. ORS presented the Council with an amount which was equivalent to 1/2 of the existing budget. After careful review of the SILC role and taking into account the available resources, the Council prepared a revised budget. This revised budget reflected a substantial reduction in staff and the relocation of the office. The final budget was presented and approved by the RISILC and the ORS at the quarterly Council meeting.

The RISILC utilized the following guidelines in preparing the resource plan:

The RISILC is responsible for contracting and maintaining legal, bookkeeping, and payroll services.

Maximizing the use of other resources, i.e., Para transit transportation and networking with other groups with similar goals.

Council members practicing the IL Philosophy of taking responsibility for meeting their own needs, i.e., scheduling their transportation, notifying the RISILC when unable to attend meetings, timely requests for access needs and keeping their own RISILC materials organized.

Committee Chairpersons assuming responsibility for scheduling meetings and contacting members, maintaining a committee file to include committee meeting agendas, minutes and reports, and collaborating on prioritizing staff tasks and time allocation.

The RISILC will assure that accessibility needs are met for all members, volunteers, staff, and the general public.

The RISILC staff provides administrative support to the Council to fulfill its federal mandates.

Continuing to rent office space to assist the Council in conducting business, holding committee meetings, housing files and equipment.

Travel costs represent reimbursement for mileage for members to attend Council meetings, hearings, and forums to gather the needs of people with disabilities.

The RISILC receives its Resource Plan funds directly from the DSU (Title 1 Innovation and Expansion funds) in the amount of $75,000 each year of the three year of this SPIL.

5.1B Describe how the following SILC resource plan requirements will be addressed.

- The SILC's responsibility for the proper expenditure of funds and use of resources that it receives under the resource plan.

The RISILC's resource plan requirements as listed above are met by the following relevant written procedures and policies, which are on file with the RISILC and the DSU and available for review: Financial Procedures, Business Procedures. and Internal Procedures.
Procedures under review/revision.

- Non-inclusion of conditions or requirements in the SILC resource plan that may compromise the independence of the SILC.

The RISILC's resource plan requirements as listed above are met by the following relevant written procedures and policies, which are on file with the RISILC and the DSU and available for review: Bylaws, Personnel Manual and Internal Procedures.
Procedures under review/revision.

- Reliance, to the maximum extent possible, on the use of resources in existence during the period of implementation of the State plan.

The SPIL goals and objectives were developed based on the belief that the best use of fluctuating, limited funds is continued support of Rhode Island's two CILs. Collaboration is an ongoing priority since it maximizes efforts and limited resources. Based on conservative budget figures and developing the SPIL goals and objectives within our financial and staffing means, the RISILC's resource plan is consistent with the existing resources expected to be allocated during the course of the three year SPIL period.

5.2 Establishment and Placement

Describe how the establishment and placement of the SILC ensures its independence with respect to the DSU and all other State agencies. Refer to the SPIL Instructions for more information about completing this section.

The RISILC is not an entity within any State agency, including the ORS (the Designated State Unit) and is independent of the ORS and all other State agencies. The RISILC was established by Rhode Island Executive Order No. 92-93 in compliance with the Rehabilitation Act of 1992 and was incorporated as a Rhode Island non-profit corporation in FY 1998. It was granted 501(c)3 status from the Internal Revenue Service in FY 2001.

5.3 Appointment and Composition

Describe the process used by the State to appoint members to the SILC who meet the composition requirements in section 705(b). Refer to the SPIL Instructions for more information about completing this section.

The RISILC's membership consists of statewide representation of between thirteen (13) and twenty-five (25) individuals, the majority of whom are consumers, nominated by the RISILC and appointed by the Governor of Rhode Island. A representative of the DSU, which in Rhode Island is the Office of Rehabilitation Services, is an ex-officio, non-voting member. At least one CIL director, chosen by CIL directors within the State, is a voting member but not part of the consumer majority. All required members of the RISILC have been officially appointed by the Governor of Rhode Island.

The RISILC members serve a maximum of two full three-year terms. The RISILC's Membership Committee maintains a nominating status file listing partial and full appointments and term expiration dates. The RISILC elects a Chair (preferably consumer), one or more Vice Chairs, a Secretary, and a Treasurer from among the voting members of the Council and consistent with its Bylaws.

Volunteer recruitment efforts are conducted on a statewide basis. Prospective volunteers are interviewed and if appropriate assigned to a committee. Following a period of active participation and completion of an orientation program, a volunteer who is knowledgeable about CILs and IL services may be recommended by RISILC's Membership Committee to fill Council membership vacancies. The full Council votes on the RISILC Membership Committee's recommendations, and if passed, his/her name is then recommended to the Governor for appointment. The Governor and his appointment staff meet periodically to review composition and qualification requirements before appointing any RISILC nominee.

5.4 Staffing

Describe how the following SILC staffing requirements will be met.

- SILC supervision and evaluation, consistent with State law, of its staff and other personnel as may be necessary to carry out its functions.

All employees of the RISILC serve at the will of the Council and may be terminated at any time with just cause or no cause at all. By the same token, any employee may terminate his or her employment with the Council at any time with just cause or no cause at all.

Employees are provided with job descriptions approved by the Council. Employees are requested annually to review their job description and provide feedback to the Chairperson of the Council regarding suggested changes and improvements. Any revision to the job description must then be submitted to the Executive Committee for approval.

The RISILC's employees are evaluated annually by the Executive Committee. The evaluations consider the performance, productivity, dependability, cooperation, job understanding, practice of the IL philosophy of their work and any other issues of concern. With each evaluation, the employee will be given suggestions for improvement and will be given the opportunity to respond to the evaluator's comments. The evaluations will be taken into consideration when opportunities for advancement and salary increases are available. In addition, the following written policies and procedures are on file with the RISILC and the DSU and are available for review: Personnel Manual, Internal Procedures, Annual Written Personnel Evaluation Form, and Written Job Descriptions. Policies and procedures under review/revision.

- Non-assignment of duties to SILC staff and other personnel made available by the DSU, or any other State agency or office, that would create a conflict of interest while assisting the SILC in carrying out its duties.

The RISILC staff works directly with and is managed solely by the Council's Executive Committee. The Executive Committee assigns the duties, defines the responsibilities, supervisors and evaluates the staff. No other organizations provide staff support to the RISILC. The DSU or any other organization can not assign duties or responsibilities to the RISILC staff.

Section 6: Service Provider Requirements

Describe how the following service provider requirements will be met:

6.1 Staffing

- Inclusion of personnel who are specialists in the development and provision of IL services and in the development and support of centers.

The Centers for Independent Living (CILs) include personnel who are specialists in the development and provision of IL services and in the development and support of CILs. This includes use of staff who are licensed occupational therapists and/or possess a degree in human services, assuring that provision of home modifications or IL assistance technology to consumers addresses all areas of functionality and safety. In addition many CIL staff are themselves persons with disabilities.

- Availability, to the maximum extent feasible, of personnel able to communicate (1) with individuals with significant disabilities who rely on alternative modes of communication, such as manual communication, nonverbal communication devices, Braille, or audio tapes and (2) in the native languages of individuals with significant disabilities whose English proficiency is limited and who apply for or receive IL services under title VII of the Act.

The CILs' personnel include individuals who are able to communicate with (1) individuals with disabilities who rely on alternative modes of communication, such as sign language, manual communication, nonverbal communication devices, Braille, or audio tape; and (2) to the extent necessary communication using interpreters, translators or the Language Line, in the native language of individuals with disabilities who express limited English proficiency and who apply for and receive IL services under Title VII of the Act. Staff are encouraged to attend workshops, conferences, or seminars to enhance skill levels as well as provided opportunity to participate in ILRU trainings.

- Affirmative action to employ and advance in employment qualified individuals with significant disabilities on the same terms and conditions required with respect to the employment of individuals with disabilities under section 503 of the Act.

Both CILs are required to maintain compliance with the contract requirements, including compliance with the Rehab Act's Section 725 Standards and Assurances; and the federal requirements for personnel administration, personnel development, affirmative action and nondiscrimination. Each CIL is required to maintain compliance with the contract requirements, including compliance with the Rehab Act's Section 725 Standards and Assurances and the following federal requirements, CIL's submit quarterly financial reporting to the DSU.

* Financial Administration (Sec. 704(M)(3) of the Act; 34 CFR 364.35)

Both CILs and SILC are required to prepare budgets and are required to submit quarterly financial and programmatic reports to the DSU documenting use of funds. CILs in particular document consumer based IL program activities while the SILC reports on use of funds according to contracted budget-SILC activities allowed under 705c3. SILC resource funds are directed solely to the activities necessary to support SILC's allowable activities.

6.3 Recordkeeping, Access and Reporting

- Maintenance of records that fully disclose and document the information listed in 34 CFR 364.35.

Each CIL is required to maintain compliance with the contract requirements, including compliance with the Rehab Act's Section 725 Standards and Assurances. The DSU conducts periodic CIL record review to assure compliance with these requirements.

* Access to Financial Records (Secs. 704.(M)(4) and (5) 34 CFR 364.37)

6.4 Eligibility

- Eligibility of any individual with a significant disability, as defined in 34 CFR 364.4(b), for IL services under the SILS and CIL programs.

All individuals provided IL services under State Part B and CIL Part C shall be individuals with significant disabilities, as defined in 34 CFR 364.4b.

Each CIL is required to maintain compliance with the contract requirements, including compliance with the Rehab Act's Section 725 Standards and Assurances and the following federal requirements: Eligibility for Receipt of Services (Secs. 7(21)(B) and 703 of the Act; 34 CFR 364.51)

Goal(s) and the related Objective(s) from Section 1 Method that will be used to evaluate

One	The following methods will be used in evaluating, reviewing and monitoring the implementation of the goals and objectives outlined in Section 1. 1. The RISILC will carefully review of the CILs' 704 Part II Reports and CILs' consumer satisfaction surveys. 2. The CILs will report at all RISILC's quarterly Council meetings on their work plan goals and objectives congruent with the State Plan for Independent Living; i.e., nursing home transition, nursing home diversion, home modification program, assistive technology program, and minority outreach efforts, including information on the number of consumers served. 3. The RISILC will use information gathered from focus groups, public forums, and the Survey developed by the Needs Assessment Committee. This evaluation methodology is meant to be a time efficient as possible, in order to maximize the CILs' time providing IL services, advocacy, IL skills training and information and referral. This is especially important given limitation from all sources of funding in the present economic climate and the need for CILs to report in a variety of funding sources for grants.
